

House Resolution No. 3392

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to recognize young men who have excelled during their association with the Boy Scouts of America program with its emphasis on physical, mental, and spiritual growth; self-reliance; personal values; service to others; and an appreciation and understanding of the wonderful natural world; and

Whereas, Logan K. Hayes of Troop 301 has successfully completed all of the stringent requirements for Scouting's highest advancement award, the rank of Eagle Scout, which was bestowed upon him during an Eagle Court of Honor; and

Whereas, attainment of the Eagle Scout rank is dependent upon the sequential completion of each of the Boy Scout steps of Tenderfoot, Second Class, First Class, Star, and Life, and expected troop service, a requirement admirably fulfilled by Logan through the billets of Senior Patrol Leader and Assistant Senior Patrol Leader; and

Whereas, diligent labors by Logan earned him a World Conservation Award, the Parvuli Dei religious award, and twenty-nine merit badges which are arrayed on his uniform sash as a visual illustration of the diverse skills and knowledge which he has acquired as a Boy Scout; and

Whereas, in keeping with Scouting practice, Logan applied the knowledge which he learned at troop meetings in many camping, hiking, and service activities, including a SAC Museum campout at the Cosmosphere in Hutchinson, Kansas; four summer sessions at H. Roe Bartle; and the planning of a High Adventure backpacking trip for summer 2006; and

Whereas, Logan completed an Eagle Project which consisted of taking a picture inventory at First Christian Church and then teaching church staff how to use and update the computer database to serve as a capstone to his Scouting career and to stand as a constant reminder of his dedication to serving others, an admirable trait which justifies the esteemed role which Scouting plays in today's society:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the outstanding achievements realized by Logan Hayes during his nine-year-long sojourn with Scouting and to congratulate him for having the drive and energy necessary to attain the rank of Eagle; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for new Eagle Scout Logan K. Hayes, son of Larry and Dana Hayes of Kansas City, Missouri.
